

Advanced Reporting

Overview

Advanced reporting provides numerous advantages and includes real-time data reporting options for all departments. Design customized reports for your dealership empowering your employees to achieve sales and operational goals easily.

Features

- Standard and advanced search criteria
- Define columns you desire for your reports
- Add a calculated column
- Ascending / descending sort capabilities
- Add sums, averages, etc.
- Drag and drop technology
- Drilldown from a chart to see the details
- Export to Excel, PDF and other popular formats
- Create custom dashboards for live data reporting
- Reports can be printed including a chart
- Advanced Reporting includes:
 - Chart styles available for you to select including three dimensional and color options
 - Charts can be used with pivot grids
 - Defined grouping
 - Custom design
 - Across module design
 - Group Indexing for easy access on screen
 - Access to a library of pre-set query views created by the development team
 - Create your own library of queries for your customized lookups
 - Pivot grids - a multi-dimensional data aggregation and summarization tool
- Chart styles available for you to select including three dimensional and color options
- Charts can be used with pivot grids
- Defined grouping